

SPEAK TO ENTOMBED MINER THROUGH TUBE

Thomas Taskesky, Who Has
Been in Mine Since Friday,
Asks About Family and Tells Them Not to Worry.

CENTRALIA, Penn., Oct. 1.—As darkness enveloped the Continental colliery of the Lehigh Coal Co. Tuesday night the voice of Thomas Taskesky, who has been entombed in the mammoth vein since Friday morning, was heard through a tube 50 feet long which had been inserted in a hole bored through a wall of coal from an adjoining breast. He spoke quite distinctly, his first inquiry being about his family.

"Tell them not to worry too much," he said, "as I am in fairly good condition. Since I got several bottles of milk and whipped eggs I feel much stronger and more content. I had a long sleep after satisfying my hunger and thirst and feel certain that I will be rescued before another fall of top rock and coal can occur."

The entombed man stated he was very nervous because of the long confinement and absolute quiet. "Sometimes," he said, "I imagine the whole roof of the breast is about to drop on my head."

Mine operators with the rescuers told Taskesky to keep up his courage and if possible to get more sleep, as probably would be another 12 hours until a big pile of coal lying in the face of the gangway could be removed sufficiently to permit members of the rescuing party to enter the breast where he is held a prisoner 100 feet below the surface.

The rescue work is being conducted from the interior of the mine.

Outside the mine Taskesky's wife and four children await his removal with great eagerness. One or more of them have been on the scene continually since he was buried five days ago, by a chain pillar running away as he was engaged in robbing pillars.

They were overjoyed Monday when they learned Taskesky was still alive and they were hopeful tonight of having him with them tomorrow for dinner.

WILL GIVE WHITE SLAVE TALK HERE

Clifford G. Roe of Chicago to Deliver
Lecture at High School on Theater.

A meeting to arrange for the coming of Clifford G. Roe, lecturer for the National Vigilance association, to South Bend, was held at the public library Tuesday evening. It was decided definitely to bring Roe here to lecture on the fight against the white slave traffic and the date of the lecture will be Oct. 30, if it can be arranged.

An effort will be made to secure the high school auditorium for the occasion and if it cannot be secured the lecture will be given in the Oliver theater. It was decided to offer tickets for sale at a very low figure to reach the largest possible number of people. The proceeds will be used to defray the expense of the lecture and the surplus will be turned over to the National Vigilance association.

Rev. Charles A. Decker was appointed to supervise the details that will precede the lecture. He will be assisted by all the 26 persons who attended the meeting. Representatives were present from the Associated Charities, the Florence Crittenden circle, the W. C. T. U. and most of the religious denominations.

Dan Pyle, county attorney, gave an address on the Indiana laws dealing with vice and pointed out their deficiencies.

It is the plan of those interested to follow Mr. Roe's address with a permanent organization in the city to fight the local manifestations of the traffic.

Mr. Roe, who is assistant state's attorney of Cook county, Ill., is the man who first brought to the attention of the American people the existence of white slave traffic in this country. This was about five years ago and since that time Mr. Roe has given his entire attention to fighting the slave traffic and commercialized vice. At present he is devoting his time to the lecture platform. He is also the author of two books, "Panderers and Their White Slaves" and "The Prodigal Daughter."

M. S. McMullen, financial secretary of the American Vigilance association, which is a national organization for the purpose of opposing commercialized vice, was present and addressed the meeting, explaining the Iowa injunction and abatement law, which is a special legislation pertinent to property used for immoral purposes and which is in force in 12 different states.

AMERICANS CAPTURED
BY CHINESE BANDITS

Notorious "White Wolf" is Leader of Gang That Takes Two American
Couple and One Child at Tsao Yang.

HANKOW, China, Oct. 1.—Five American and four Norwegian missionaries are in the hands of the Chinese bandits who on Friday captured the town of Tsao Yang in the northern part of the province of Hupéi. The American prisoners are reported to be Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and child and Mr. and Mrs. Fauske.

The Rev. C. Stokstad of the Hauges Norwegian mission, telegraphed from Fancheng that on Saturday Mr. Fauske, who is attached to the Lutheran Brethren mission, was still held in Tsao Yang for ransom but was separated from his wife, who with the other foreigners, was held prisoner in another part of the city.

The notorious bandit "White Wolf", whom the government has been fighting for several months, is the leader. Orders have been issued for the Chinese troops surrounding the district to advance toward Tsao Yang and exterminate the bandits.

Gen. Li Yuen Heng, vice president of the republic told J. Paul Jameson, acting American consul at Hankow, Monday that he believed the foreigners would not be harmed and would not be taken away.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment stopped the itching at once and checked the hair from falling out. My scalp is now completely cured. I consider Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment a godsend to anyone troubled with any skin trouble." (Signed) Dwight W. Clark, 409 Canal St.

Piles Cured After 15 Years.
New Haven, Conn., April 19, 1913.—"I had itching piles for fifteen years and so bad that I could not sleep at night. I tried many remedies with only temporary relief. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment for I got relief with the first application, and I can now say that I am completely cured." (Signed) Charles A. Bradley, 93 Nicoll St.
